The Stone Prince is super sexy, tons of fun, and over too soon. Vivid descriptions, great characters, and quick pacing make this book a keeper. I will NOT be lending this one out. Buy your own! Even with the profusion of hyphenated phrases, The Stone Prince is a four star read. The premise is fresh, and hot doesn't do this story justice. The chemistry between Katie and Jorlen is nuclear, and ...

The Stone Prince (Imperia, #1) by Gena Showalter The Stone Prince is the first book of a series by newcomer Fiona Patton. She doesn't break new ground, but does explore concepts like gender equality, religious intolerance and homosexuality in a way that wasn't preachy. The world of The Stone Prince resembles Renaissance Europe, and the country of Branion is a thinly-disguised England. The ...
